REGION V Highlight
By: RAD Region V

Activation Milestone:
We're thrilled to share that Region V has achieved activation at 10 out of 12 colleges, a significant step towards our collaborative goals and almost to full activation.

Newest Activations:
Exciting news! Fresno City College and Modesto Junior College are now part of our growing network, contributing to the strength of Region V as a whole.

Conference Presence:
RAD Simon has been representing has been actively participating in conferences and events across the regions, showcasing/representing the central valley and fostering meaningful connections to organizations and legislations.

Upcoming College Visits:
Stay tuned! We're planning visits to other colleges in the region, deepening our collaboration and ensuring all institutions are actively engaged. If you have any college events or upcoming trainings please feel free to reach out to me.

Progress and Success:
Region V is making remarkable progress, exceeding expectations in our collective pursuit of educational excellence. Thanks to our delegates and there colleges for their dedication and hard work!
WHAT TO LOOK FORWARD TO

SSCCC GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Every year, the SSCCC holds a Spring General Assembly in which Delegates representing the 116 California Community Colleges, get together to discuss and vote on matters that affect California Community College students through the resolution process. General Assembly is also an opportunity for delegates to elect the incoming academic year’s SSCCC Board Officers. For more information on General Assembly, please visit the ssccc.org website or click on the links below.

RESOLUTIONS PROCESS

Delegates of the General Assembly will vote on resolutions that will establish the priorities for the SSCCC to advocate for into the next academic year.
