President's Update

As we enter the first full month of the spring term, the SSSCCC is excited to share with you information below about the general assembly, our student forum series, as well as an interview with Marlene Garcia, Executive Director, California Student Aid Commission. We hope you find the information useful.

General Assembly

The SSSCCC General Assembly will be held on April 1 – 3, 2022. Registration is now open at this link. All workshops and keynote speakers will be only available in person. Elections and Resolution debate will be available both in person and online. Note: all delegates are free to attend both in person and online.

Hotel Rooms:

Hotel rooms at the Holiday Inn – Sacramento room block are selling out quickly. Please reserve your rooms by March 2, 2022, to receive the negotiated rate of $164. Room reservation information is available on our website at this link.

Call for Proposals

You still have time to submit a proposal! The General Assembly is a time to share information, to train student leaders, and to network with students from around the state. The deadline for submitting proposals is February 21st and more information can be found at this link.

Resolutions

Thank you to everyone who submitted a resolution to be debated at the upcoming General Assembly. We have received 20 resolutions, which will be available on the SSSCC website at this link by February 18th and sent via our Action Network listserv. Then you will have until March 2nd to submit any amendments to the resolutions. The Final Resolution package will be available on March 9th.

COVID-19 Precautions

We have heard that some students are concerned about their safety and attending in person. The SSSCC has developed in person event meeting protocols. You can find these protocols on our website at this link.

Student Forums

As announced in last month's newsletter, the SSSCC has begun holding a series of Student Forums. Our first forum on Basic Needs was well attended and is available on our YouTube Channel at this link. Regretfully, our second forum on nontraditional students was Zoom Bombed and is not available. We apologize to those that attended and will take precautions in the future to prevent these types of intrusions. Thus, the series will be recreated and posted on our YouTube Channel at a later date. Upcoming forums are as follows:

- February 22nd - Student Athletes
- March 1st - International Students
- March 8th - Noncredit Students
- March 24th - Undocumented/Dreamer Students
- March 29th - Diversity in STEM
