

AB 2315

Fact Sheet

Community colleges: records: affirmed name and gender identification.

AB 2315, introduced by Arambula, mandates that California Community Colleges enable current students, staff, and faculty to declare an affirmed name and gender for records where legal names are not required by law, starting in the 2023–24 academic year. It prohibits additional fees for updating records based on affirmed names or gender identification.

Signed into law September '22